Motion For Permission To file Plaintiff's Amended Complaint

Comes Now Plaintiff Lincoln David Allen Pro Se Pursuant to Fed. R.C. Pro. Rule 11, and Rule 15(a) And Rule 50, herein respectfully, Moves this Honorable Court for Permission to file his Amended Civil Complaint to Cure any evidentiary deficiencies That May be in Plaintiff's Original Complaint at bar, for reasons as follows;

Case 2:06-cv-01920-VST-SRV Document 23 Filed 02/14/2007 Page 2 of 4 A review of Plaintiff's Original Civil Complaint set bar by one with Somewhat more legal knowledge indicates that an amendment should be filed to cure evidentiary deficiencies and to paint a clearer picture of the actual harm plaintiff suffered at the hands of prison officials that not only clearly violated their oath of office but knowingly violated specific rules and regulations of the prison system, establishing clearly the defendants culpability in acting meanfully with malice desire to hurt and harm plaintiff illegally and which records can and will show that plaintiff did fact suffer the necessary harm, pain and injury to raise to a violation of the 8th Amendment because the defendants did act maliciously and sadistically for the sole purpose of causing plaintiff to suffer harm physically and mentally, for which plaintiff has a constitutional right to seek appropriate relief in this ~~case~~ cause of action.

CONCLUSION

Wherefore Premises Considered Plaintiff herein respectfully Moves this Honorable Court for Permission to Amend his Civil Action Complaint at bar to Cure Any and all evidentiary deficiencies, Which Can be fully established by Not Only the Records Already On file but by records defendants intentionally With held. And to allow The Records to Show Plaintiff's full Name.

It is so prayed

Respectfully Submitted
